Parental Release Form

1. The parent/guardian by the execution of this release agrees that all officers, directors, officials and volunteers associated with or affiliated with ACAA shall not be liable for any injury sustained by the minor whose name appears upon this application. The parent/guardian by executing this release hereby waives any right to bring suit against ACAA, its officers, directors, officials and volunteers for any injury sustained during the course of athletic competition authorized and/or sanctioned by ACAA. The parent/guardian hereby agrees to hold harmless ACAA, its officers, directors, officials and volunteers from any such claims for injury to said minor.
2. By signing below you, as a parent/guardian, do commit to comply with the rules of the ACAA as stated in Rule 8, Sections 4 & 5 of the ACAA Basketball Rules (shown below). This includes not only being responsible for yourself, but helping the ACAA by helping others around you to act accordingly at games.

Rule 8

Section 4 PARENT CONDUCT - The parent's role in this program should be limited in such a manner that the player will feel no effects of parental pressure. Discourage interference by parents or well-meaning outsiders in a polite, firm way. Interested, cooperative parents are an asset to you but keep control.

Section 5 SPECTATOR CONDUCT - Under no circumstances should spectators be allowed on the court, unless asked by officials or coach to come to the aid of an injured player. Each team is responsible for their spectators.

By signing below you as parent/guardian thereby state that you child is the age stated above and that she/he is not playing on any public or private Middle School, High School, Junior Varsity or Varsity Basketball Team for the current season.
